THE South-Carolina GAZETTE

[Numb. 963.]

LONDON, July 17.

YEſterday came on at Guildhall, the trial of Mr. Owen, an eminent bookſeller, upon an information for publiſhing a pamphlet, entitled, the Caſe of the Hon. Alexander Murray, Eſq; when after a hearing of five hours, the jury, having received their charge, withdrew, and in an hour and forty minutes, brought in their verdict, Not Guilty, to the entire ſatisfaction of a numerous and crowded audience, who were unanimouſly delighted to find the liberty of the preſs (ſo intimately connected with the liberty of the ſubject) ſo juſtly aſſerted by this equitable verdict.

The names of the Jury were,

Richard Barwell, Bread Street, Merchant,
John Horton, Old Fiſh Street, Sugar-baker,
Thomas Smith, Watling Street, Linnen Draper,
Godfrey Towe, Friday Street, Draper,
Edward Berwick, ditto, Draper,
Richard Briſtow, Bread Street, Grocer,
William Wooley, Cheapſide, Hoſier,
Richard Bridgman, Aldgate High Street, Grocer,
Philip Grafton, ditto, Oilman,
Samuel Lloyd, Devonſhire Square, Merchant,
Henry Hall, St. Helen's, Cyder Merchant,
John Tuff, Eſq; Biſhopſgate Street.

The council for the crown were, Mr. Attorney General, Mr. Sollicitor-General, Sir Richard Lloyd, and the hon. Mr. Yorke.

For the defendant, Mr. Ford, Mr. Pratt, Mr. Norton, Mr. Williams, Mr. Davy, and Mr. Gaſcoigne.

Upon the acquittal of Mr. Owen, almoſt as loud were the ſhouts as thoſe made at the acquittal of the biſhops from their libel in 1688; which was not only heard in the ſtanding army at Hounſlow, but all over the nation, and the effects not long after felt.

London, Sept. 23. We hear that Alex. Murray, Eſq; is preferred to the command of a company in Gen. Keith's regiment at Berlin. And that a perſon who has been there incog. ſome time, is treated with great diſtinction, which occaſions various conjectures concerning him.

London, July 22. By letters from Vienna we find, that all perſons of the niceſt honour are in the dumps, which is occaſioned by an edict iſſued by the Empreſs, whereby death is made the penalty of fighting a duel; ſo that the delinquents have no chance for their lives; for they muſt either both die on the ſpot, or one or both of them be hanged; and if they ſhould have the good luck to eſcape juſtice, they are to be [illegible] that thoſe who go to fight the next day after an affront given mean to commit murder, as they muſt have had leiſure ſufficient to reflect.

Ships this year at Greenland. Engliſh 23, Scots 9, Hollanders 117, Hamburgers 13, Danes 5, French (about 100 tons each) 2.

August 1. Died in Feverſham in Kent, Mr. Hunt, the perſon who ſeized the late King James II. when he was going from the above place for France. Mr. Hunt was at that time a king's Officer, and went on board the veſſel to ſearch after contraband goods, and finding four perſons on board who endeavoured to conceal themſelves, he ſeized them and ſearched all their pockets, and brought them on ſhore to the town without knowing any one of the company; but was greatly ſurpriz'd and frightened, when he found who were his priſoners.

Cork, July 24. There is now in this city one Cornelius Magrath, a boy of 15 years 11 months old, of a moſt gigantick ſtature, being exactly 7 feet 9 inches 3 qrs. high; he is clumſy made, talks boyiſh and ſimply, he came hither from Youghal, where he has been a year going into the ſalt water for rheumatick pains, which almoſt crippled him, which the phyſicians now ſay were growing pains, for he is grown to the monſtrous ſize he is of within theſe twelve months. He was a month at the Biſhop of Cloyne's, who took great care of him; his hand was big as a middling ſhoulder of mutton; the laſt of his ſhoe, which he carries about him, meaſures 15 inches. He was born in the county of Tipperary, within 5 miles of the ſilver mines.

London, August 18. From Madrid, by the laſt mail, they write, that they were extremely impatient to hear from Buenos Ayres, whither the King's commiſſaries were gone to take poſſeſſion, in his catholick majeſty's name, of the neighbouring colony which the King of Portugal had ceded to Spain.

We learn from Berlin, that his Pruſſian majeſty has diſtributed very large [illegible] to thoſe who have undertaken to breed ſilk worms, and to manufacture ſilk after the manner practiſed in France and Italy; and that he has promiſed to reward them to the height of their expectations in caſe they ſhall bring their undertaking to a certain degree of perfection, and to defray any extraordinary expences that ſhall be neceſſary in the [illegible] of this deſign.

London, Aug. [illegible] and Tellicherry having been lately the ſubject of [illegible], the following account may not be diſagreeable to our readers. They are two port towns of the hither India in Aſia; [illegible] of [illegible] it is ſituated in the principality of Guzurat, or Cambaya, on the river [illegible] 200 miles north of Bombay; it is defended only by an old wall and ſome [illegible] forts, [illegible] about [illegible] miles [illegible], but very populous and [illegible] rich. The Engliſh, French and Dutch have their factories here; but the Moors, Armenians, [illegible], are much greater merchants. The Engliſh Preſident [illegible] in the time of [illegible] had his coaches, [illegible] and horſes richly equipped, and when he went abroad had his guards and a numerous retinue, the Europeans finding it neceſſary for their Officers and ſervants to make a grand appearance among the eaſtern nations.

The Preſident is uſually Governor of Bombay, and of all the Engliſh ſettlements on the weſt coaſt of India. This city and the province in which it ſtands were both entirely ſubject to the Great Mogul; but the Malabar coaſt on which Tellicherry is ſituated, is divided among a great many petty princes and ſtates, who were all tributary to the Great Mogul, till one of them took up arms againſt him, and has ſince, with the aſſiſtance of the French, made a conſiderable progreſs in that part of his dominions. From the factory of Tellicherry we are ſupplied chiefly to import pepper. Its eaſtern longitude [illegible] 75 deg. 12 min. It is ſituated about 30 miles north of Calicut, which is 300 miles ſouth of Goa, and was the firſt land the Portugueſe diſcovered in India, when they found the way by the Cape of Good Hope in 1498. It may be proper to obſerve, that neither the city of Surat, nor the town of Tellicherry, belong to our Eaſt India company, they having only factories there.

In the preamble of the edict for eſtabliſhing a royal lottery at Naples, it is ſaid, that ſince all the ſalutary laws for ſuppreſſing gaming have hitherto had little effect, it has been held expedient to try whether the paſſion of tempting fortune may not be turn'd to publick utility, by allowing people to game fairly (ſince they will game) at a moderate expence, and applying the profits to ſuch uſes as muſt otherwiſe be provided for by an impoſition of new taxes.

London, August 25. On ſaturday evening laſt, after a week's illneſs, died the truly pious and learned William Whiſton, M. A. ſometime Profeſſor of the mathematicks in the univerſity of Cambridge; he was born December 9, 1667, admitted a Student of Clare Hall in 1686, and choſen a Fellow of that college, 1693. In 1700 he was appointed by Sir Iſaac Newton to read lectures for him, and in 1701, was, by the recommendation of that great Philoſopher, choſen mathematick Profeſſor on his own reſignation, which chair he worthily filled till 1711, during which time he ſo clearly explained the Newtonian philoſophy in his Mathematical and Aſtronomical Lectures, which he then publiſhed, as to introduce into the univerſity that ſyſtem which till then was not underſtood but by a very few, & thoſe deep geometricians.

London, August 27. It is reported that a ſquadron of men [illegible] has been ill treated, and the neceſſity of obſerving how well the treaty lately concluded with the Baſhaw of Tripoly will be complied with. But it is reported there, that the ſtrangers [illegible] in viewing the ſeveral ports in the iſland, are exceedingly complaiſant to the natives, and expreſs mighty concern that ſo plentiful and well ſituated a country ſhould be ſo little improved.

London, August 29. Some advices from France inform us, that orders have been ſent to their ports to compleat, without delay whatever ſhips are upon the ſtocks, and to equip as expeditiouſly as poſſible ſuch as have been ordered for ſervice. It is added, that directions have been alſo given for putting two ſeventy gun ſhips upon the ſtocks, and to proceed with them as faſt as may be.—In this ſeaſon of peace and negotiation, it is not eaſy to gueſs the meaning of ſuch an armament.

Within theſe few days [illegible] new [illegible] have been launched for the ſervice of the Britiſh [illegible], which are [illegible] the Anti-Gallican, Canterbury, Halifax, [illegible].

According to freſh advices from Copenhagen, an Officer of the marine, who has been [illegible] Greenland, has laid before ſome of the principal Officers of the navy his reaſons for ſuppoſing there is an open north weſt paſſage to the South ſeas, founded chiefly on his own obſervations, and facts certified at his inſtance, by the principal inhabitants of the Daniſh colony, in the country [illegible], and the ſeamen who have been employ'd in Davis's ſtreights. It is ſaid this information is equally ingenious and curious, but [illegible] not thought proper to communicate to the publick.

We hear from good authority that [illegible] out for his Britiſh [illegible] as ſoon as [illegible]

[illegible]

They write from Stockholm, that [illegible] his Swediſh majeſty's [illegible] the magiſtracy of [illegible] the King [illegible] the fatigues of coming to ſee them [illegible] every where in his [illegible] demanded, or required.

London, September [illegible]. We hear ſeveral houſes in [illegible] Yard, near Whitehall, are ordered to be pulled down, to build [illegible] to the court of King's bench.

By [illegible] arrived [illegible] this week [illegible] we have advice, that the Spaniards have 7000 men at work in that harbour; ſome being employed in [illegible] that they had already [illegible]

[illegible] on the ſtocks twelve ſhips of 70 guns; and ſix more of the [illegible] were on the ſtocks at St. Andero.

Extract of a Letter from St. Ives, August [illegible].

"I am ſorry to acquaint you with a melancholy ſcene we have had on this coaſt for two days paſt. Laſt Sunday the greateſt part of the day the wind was at S. S. E. but about [illegible] in the evening it came about to N. N. W. and ſuddenly blew a hurricane. The next morning the Daniel ſloop, of and from Guernſey, Peter [illegible], maſter, and the William and John, of and for Sandwich, John Dare, maſter, both from Milford with Culm, being [illegible] ready to founder, ran on ſhore in our bay, and the veſſels are both loſt, but the men ſaved. A little to the weſtward of this place the ſight was moſt ſhocking, the ſea being covered with wrecks, and as well as can be diſtinguiſhed five veſſels were loſt, out of which only one man was ſaved, who belonged to a new brig of Clovelly, about [illegible] tons, Randal, maſter, from Milford, laden with Culm; and by a body, which is ſince taken up, another appears to be the Unity of Combe, Jno. Diamond, maſter, who loaded coals at [illegible] for [illegible]. Who the other three are, no one can tell, the veſſels being daſhed to pieces. About five [illegible] to the weſtward, the Two Brothers of Wells, Francis Gardner, maſter, from Dublin, with flax [illegible], bound to London, is loſt with the cargo, but the maſter and crew, except one, miraculouſly ſaved their lives. Further to the weſtward two more are loſt, and all their crews periſhed. One of them from the maſt and ſome rigging which I have ſeen, muſt have been a veſſel of [illegible] 400 tons, but no other account. About 15 miles to the eaſtward of this place, the [illegible], of and from [illegible], Robert Ball, maſter, and the [illegible], of and from [illegible], laden with coals, are aſhore, but the crews are ſaved, and 'tis hoped the veſſels will be got off. A brig belonging to one Bozacoat of Cork, is loſt with her cargo of coals, and the maſter and one man drowned."

[illegible], October 30. On Thurſday laſt, [illegible] appointed by his honour the Lieutenant Governor, to [illegible] with the eaſtern Indians at St. George's fort, [illegible] in the country ſloop [illegible] conference of three days, the [illegible] of peace and friendſhip was [illegible] and ſigned by both parties. There were preſent about 110 Indians, men, women [illegible]

CHARLES-TOWN, November 27.

On Tueſday Morning the 21ſt Inſtant, died in the [illegible] Year of her Age, Mrs. Iſabella Wright, Relict of the late Honourable Robert Wright, Eſq; Chief Juſtice of this Province.

Laſt Thurſday, JOHN L[illegible], Eſq; Commander of Fort Johnſon, was married to Miſs REBECCA [illegible], one of the Daughters of the late Mr. WILLIAM [illegible], a very agreeable young Lady of diſtinguiſhed Merit, with a handſome Fortune.

The Brigt. John and Mary, Capt. [illegible], from Rotterdam, with near [illegible] German Paſſengers, is arrived here. The Ship Queen of Denmark, Capt. George Parriſh, from Hamburgh, with [illegible] more (ſuppoſed to have been loſt) is put into Philadelphia. But the Ship Elizabeth, Capt. [illegible], from Rotterdam, is ſtill miſſing.

The Apollo, Capt. [illegible], from London, is arrived. In his Paſſage he put into Madeira, where he left his Excellency [illegible] in ſo ill a State of Health [illegible] to proceed for his Government.

On Friday laſt arrived from [illegible]

the Sloop Hester of Boston, John Roffe, Maſter, bound from the Bay of Honduras, for this Port: And in her, 36 Perſons belonging to other Veſſels, which were wreck'd on this Coaſt in the ſaid Storm; amongſt them Capt. Henry Allen McDougall, late Maſter of the Ship Kingſton, (formerly the Rainbow) of and from Jamaica, bound for Philadelphia, who informs us, that his Ship was wreck'd there, beſides the Ship Ruby, George Edwards Maſter, from Jamaica, of and for Philadelphia; Snow Priſcilla, Peter Ham, of and for London, from Jamaica; Brigt. Lark, Theo[illegible] Drew, of and for Salem, from Jamaica; Schooner Daniel, ——— Boyd, of and for Virginia, from Jamaica; and a French Snow laden with Lumber: That there were 16 Sail of Veſſels in Company in the Gulph, when the Storm came on, moſt of which are ſuppoſed to be loſt; That the Florida-Indians boarded the ſeveral Wrecks, plundered them, ſtripped the People, but did not offer to kill any Body: That Capt. Ham came away, with part of his Crew in his Long-Boat; And that they had burnt the Ruby and the French Snow.

Capt. Drew abovementioned, with 15 People in his Long-Boat, are juſt arrived from Florida; but they give no Account of Capt. Ham, who came away before them.

By the above Sloop, the Account of the Spaniards fortifying Port-Cavallos in the Bay, is confirm'd: We are alſo inform'd, that they have a Garriſon there; and that a great Number of Pettiauguas are continually kept on the Cruiſe to intercept the Engliſh Traders.

The Four paſt Months may be called remarkable, for having produced more violent Storms and Hurricanes than have been felt before in a Year, and all attended with great Deſtruction, eſpecially of Shipping. On the 25th and 26th Days of Auguſt O.S. a ſeverer Storm than that of 1739, was felt in Europe, particularly on the Coaſts of Great-Britain: On the 15th and 30th Days of September, two dreadful Hurricanes, in this Province: On the 1ſt and 8th Days of October, two great Storms, on the Coaſts of North-Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, New-York, New-England and New-Scotland: And on the 30th of October to the 3d Inſtant, one on the Coaſt of Florida, &c. among the Bahama-Iſlands, and in the Windward-Paſſage.
